What are attendee groups?

Omar S. - 2021-03-16 - Form Designer

Attendee groups represent the different pricing options you might want to include within your event for different types of registrants.

If there is only one pricing for the event, you will need to create one attendee group.

Note: You must have at least one attendee group before you proceed with the package creation and setup.